

FACULTY OF THEOLOGY

JUNE 2012 EXAMINATIONS SESSION

MRT3990 - B.A (Hons) Theology with a Subsidiary Area Paper III

Tuesday 19th June

Time: 9.15am – 12.15pm

Candidates are requested to answer ONE question.

- 1 Self-identity is shaped by what one regards as matters of importance. Discuss this statement and explain what you consider to be important for one to pursue in either politics or economics.

 - 2 The ethics of responsibility stresses the centrality of conscience and the need of moral conversion and growth. Discuss how Christian married couples are called to take responsible decisions in their daily experience of marriage as an intimate partnership of life and love and as a source of God's grace which empowers them to live faithfully their Christian vocation in the midst of today's unlawful contraceptive practices and divorce mentality, the culture of death, and the biotechnological challenges at the beginning and end of human life.

 - 3 In the Christian vision of politics and economics, the common good is intimately related to human rights understood in the light of the Christian understanding of the human person. Discuss.
