

UNIVERSITY OF MALTA
FACULTY OF ARTS

January 2011 SESSION EXAMINATIONS

CLA 1003 Introduction to Latin/CLA 1001 Basic Notions of Latin 1

Wednesday, 02nd February 2011
08:00 ~ 09:00

---

NO DICTIONARIES ARE ALLOWED

Answer ALL questions

Each section carries twenty points

1. Translate the following:
  - a. acta deos numquam mortalia fallunt.
  - b. nihil est simul et inventum et perfectum.
  - c. inter vepres rosae nascuntur.
  - d. nemo nisi vitio suo miser est.
  - e. pro bono publico.
  - f. Deus naturam non destruit, sed perficit.
  - g. cucullus non facit monachum.
  - h. fortiter, fideliter, feliciter.
  - i. ratio omnia vincit.
  - j. amicus in necessitate probatur.

2. Translate the following into Latin:
  - a. The mountains were being attacked by old soldiers.
  - b. Our men feared the great forces of the Gauls.
  - c. They will have sailed.
  - d. She worked.
  - e. We shall be loved in our country.
  - f. The barbarians were preparing war.
  - g. We have hastened.
  - h. We have been terrified by the fierce barbarians.
  - i. They assailed the forces of the barbarians with weapons.
  - j. You had worked.

3. Give words derived from the following Latin ones:
juncus, humanus, Fabius, descendo, bulga, appareo, co + alesco, ex + planus, in + caro, coagulo.

4. Give Latin words from which the following are derived:
incentive, gestation, explant, coast, append, bullion, describe, fact, Juno, expletive.

5. Give the following forms in Latin:
  - a. Accusative plural feminine of vetus.
  - b. Vocative singular of rex.
  - c. Ablative plural of magister.
  - d. Dative singular masculine of pulcher.
  - e. First person singular perfect passive indicative of paro.
  - f. Third person plural imperfect active indicative of duco.
  - g. 19th January, 2011.
  - h. 1st February, 1565.
  - i. Principal parts of extinguo.
  - j. Principal parts of peto.