

JANUARY 2012 SESSION EXAMINATIONS

CLA1003/CLA1001 Introduction to Latin/Basic Notions of Latin

1

Wednesday 1st February 2012

08.00 ~ 09.00

BI-LINGUAL DICTIONARIES ARE NOT ALLOWED

Answer ALL questions

Each section carries twenty points

1. Translate the following:
  - a. fortiter, fideliter, feliciter.
  - b. amat victoria curam.
  - c. Deus naturam non destruit, sed perficit.
  - d. semper avarus eget.
  - e. pauci, sed boni.
  - f. numquam periculum sine periculo vincitur.
  - g. pulchre, bene, recte.
  - h. experientia docet.
  - i. ex auricula asinum.
  - j. pro bono publico

2. Translate the following into Latin:
  - a. We shall work.
  - b. The Belgians had loved their country.
  - c. He neglected the good advice of Cotta.
  - d. Students, you will be taught by another teacher.
  - e. He was fighting.
  - f. You frightened the wretched prisoners. substantia / terruisti/s
  - g. They used to be feared in the small town.
  - h. They had been terrified by the Roman people.
  - i. You (pl.) advise.
  - j. There was a large number of captives in the camp.

3. Give words derived from the following Latin ones:
appeto, boia, colubra, de + consacro, ex + plico, formido, germanus, humus, formula, ex + plaudo.

4. Give Latin words from which the following are derived:
desegregate, desert, bureau, balneal, balsam, deselect, explosion, fortuitous, humerus, horrid.
deserere

5. Give the following forms in Latin:
  - a. Genitive singular neuter of bonus. boni
  - b. Vocative singular of dominus. domine
  - c. Nominative plural of magister. magistri
  - d. Ablative plural feminine of tener. tenerum
  - e. Second person plural future perfect active indicative of venio. venistis
  - f. First person singular masculine perfect passive indicative of video. visus sum
  - g. Third person plural feminine pluperfect passive indicative of vinco. vincerentur
  - h. Second person singular future indicative of sum. eris
  - i. Principal parts of doceo. doceo, docere, docui, doctus
  - j. Principal parts of facio. facio, facere, feci, factus